SPECIAL MEETING (Item 1)

1. ANNUAL CITY COUNCIL TEAM-BUILDING AND GOALS MEEGING

City Manager Rodericks introduced the topic and consultant Nancy Hetrick with Baker Tilly who facilitated the workshop.

Council held a conversation related to the annual goals with a theme centered on strengthening teamwork and governance. Council reviewed practices of effective elected officials, heard organizational updates from Rodericks and identified fiscal year 2023-34 Council priorities.

Council discussed each Townwide strategic goal in detail and made some adjustments based on progress. The revised goals are as follows:

- Goal A: Maintain Fiscal Responsibility
- Goal B: Preserve Small Town Character and Quality of Life
- Goal C: Manage Circulation and Improve Safety through Investments in Infrastructure.
- Goal D: Strengthen Community Engagement and Transparency.
- Goal E: Be a Forward-Thinking, Well-Managed, Well-Planned City
- Goal F: Emergency Preparedness

Consultant Hetrick summarized key takeaways and noted Rodericks would work to incorporate updates to priorities as discussed.
