STUDY SESSION

1. FY 2023/24 BUDGET KICK-OFF AND OVERVIEW

Finance Director Barron provided a budget overview and kickoff outlining the fiscal year 2022/2023 year-end projections, major revenue sources, expenditures, and the budget process. Barron reviewed revenues including anticipated property tax revenue, allocating American Rescue Funds, and savings realized by the OPEB payment.

Council discussed the major areas presented and raised the idea of allocating funds to the Facilities Replacement Fund and potential projects for unallocated revenue.

This item was an introduction to the budget process, the full budget will return to Council in June.

2. DISCUSSION OF AN AMENDMENT TO THE TOWN'S NOISE ORDINANCE RELATED TO THE USE OF GAS-POWERED LEAF BLOWERS

City Manager Rodericks introduced the item and Mayor Widmer provided an overview and history. Rodericks shared comments from the Council Ad Hoc Subcommittee related to the topic.

City Attorney Ebrahimi noted that AB 1346 outlaws' small off-road engines (SORE) and not exclusively Leaf Blowers.

Rodericks provided a framework for the Council discussion and policy direction and Council discussed strategies to handle enforcement, rebate programs, and outreach.

Public Comments:
